MEMBERSHIP OPENING ON THE FINE ARTS COMMISSION

1. Candidates are being sought for a membership opening on the Fine Arts Commission. The commission normally meets once a month for one hour. However, considerable additional time may be required in helping to implement the commission's decisions and responsibilities. Candidates should have an interest and ability in fine arts, graphic design, landscaping, or interior decorating.

2. The purpose of the Fine Arts Commission is described below in accordance with HR [REDACTED]

The Fine Arts Commission is concerned particularly with the visual aspects of public areas in the Headquarters Building; for example, the display of art or proposed changes in furnishings or color schemes. The commission coordinates suggestions concerning the appearance of the Headquarters Building and may recommend action relating to the enrichment of the work environment. The commission also is available to Agency components in other buildings for consultation on such matters.

3. Anyone interested in being considered as a member of the commission should send a short written statement supporting their interest and qualifications to the Chairman [REDACTED] Headquarters Building. Statements should reach the Chairman by Tuesday, 26 July 1977.
